Welcome & Introductions Approve Minutes Pat Solomon	Pat Solomon welcomed everyone and those in attendance introduced themselves. Pat and Kirstin Frescoln provided holiday refreshments.	The Minutes of the November meeting were approved.
Video on Mecklenburg Drug Court Kirstin Frescoln	The video was produced with grant funds from the Meck. Sheriff's Dept. Although it chronicles adult criminal Drug Treatment Court (DTC), the video is a good intro to therapeutic courts. NC has District and Superior adult criminal DTC, specialized DWI treatment courts, Youth Treatment Cts for juvenile delinquents and Family DTC working with parent respondents in abuse and neglect court. DTC is non-adversarial and treatment-oriented. Provides assessment, treatment, case management, job training, housing assistance, random drug testing, and ALWAYS see the same judge. Participants pay toward treatment. Funding for DTC comes from state legislature, GCC, local government and federal grants. Confidentiality issues met with waivers by participants.	To view a copy of the video, contact Kirstin Frescoln 919-571-4884 or via email kirstin.p.frescoln@nccourts.org.

I did recall, and in fact gave a report to the Collaborative at the December meeting in your absence. The data collected (strictly informally) by the CCMs as they did reviews with the various residential programs (mostly L3) covered 68% (22) of the area programs. Of the 68% of AP, 68% (15) indicated there was a CFT involved with the individual child. Interestingly enough, this varied within AP, and seemed related to the CM and not the AP usually. We counted a "yes" for the AP if it was indicated in any review, even if we also got a "no" from some of the other reviews.

The most disconcerting aspect of the inquiry was the response to the last question:

"Has there been training if CFT/SOC?" 13% indicated "yes", most of the others "did not know", or said "no".
